What Is the Jellybean Prayer?

Orange is for heaven so bright.
Yellow is for God's perfect light.
Black is for the sins we've made.
Red is for the blood Christ gave.
White is for the cleansing from sin.
Green is for our new life in Him.
Pink is for His free gift to share.
Purple is for the crowns we'll wear!
The witness of the Jelly Beans is true.
Trust in Jesus because He loves you!

The Lord has risen! Luke 24:34 NIV

“I Beg You... Bear With One Another in Love”

Ephesians 4:1-3

March 1, 2024 is World Day of Prayer

This program calls us to bear with each other in love, despite all difficulties and oppression. The program was written by a group of ecumenical Christian Palestinian women in response to the passage from Ephesians 4:1-

7. We reflected collectively on this theme from the context of our suffering as Palestinian Christian women. We hope to inspire other women around the world to bear with one another in love during troubled times.

Bible Study

“I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.” Ephesians 4:1-3 (NRSV)

Ephesians is considered one of Paul’s “prison letters,” written in Rome around 60-61 CE. Paul wrote this epistle to strengthen the community of faith in Christ, the grace of God and the Gospel. He also wrote to encourage them to continue their work of living in holiness and service in response to God’s saving grace. Ephesians therefore carries themes of exhortation and assurance.

The first three chapters of Ephesians discuss God’s salvation and the gift of unity, while the last three chapters describe the response of believers to God’s plan of salvation. This year’s World Day of Prayer program comes from the first six verses of chapter four. In these verses, Paul encourages the Ephesians to live a sanctified life, bearing with one another in humility and love in order to maintain the gift of unity that God had given them. Paul reminds the Ephesians that God chose both Gentiles and Jews to be saved, bringing together people of very different backgrounds through the shared promise guaranteed by Christ to all the members of his church. Paul urges the Ephesians to live a life worthy of the calling they received, as people united with one another through Christ’s saving work.

This calling is not easy. It requires patience, self-denial, and love. Paul reminds the Ephesians to be united in one spirit by the hope they share in Christ. And so, we Christians spread throughout the world, can also find our unity and hope in this text.

*Happy is the one whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord his God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them;
who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry.
Psalms 146: 5-7*

"America is the richest country in the world. And yet tonight, thousands of your neighbors will go to bed hungry. It may be your child's schoolmate who is undernourished and has difficulty learning on an empty stomach. Or it could be a co-worker, a working mother whose low-wage job doesn't make ends meet. Perhaps it's an elderly neighbor who has to make a decision whether to delay filling a prescription or buying groceries. The faces of hunger are as broad as the faces of America." ~ David Nasby, General Mills

*"Make us worthy, Lord, to serve those throughout the world who live and die in poverty or hunger.
Give them, through our hands this day their daily bread:
and by our understanding love, give peace and joy. Amen"
Mother Teresa*

Please consider giving a donation to a local food shelf.

Thanking you with grateful hearts, your neighbors in need.
